

CHARITY begins on the golf course at the Shell Houston Open. You can make a local charity a big winner by participating in the Birdies for Charity® competition. That's because participating charities receive every single penny of the program's collected donations. It is expected that between 1,500-1,800 birdies will be made by the PGA TOUR Pros Wednesday through Sunday during the tournament. That number could change due to inclement weather.

How You Can Be a Winner

- Simply pledge one (1¢) cent or more per birdie

OR

- Make a donation of $20 or more

Do this and...

- Have a chance to win the Grand Prize of a 2010 Honda Fit – courtesy of Rocky McCullough/Goodson Honda, that will be awarded to the person who comes closest to guessing the exact number of birdies

After the tournament you will be invoiced for your pledge amount due. You can pay by check or credit card at that time. Please made checks payable to the Houston Golf Association. See contest rules on back.
